

OVER 12 BILLIONS IN FARM PRODUCTS PRODUCED IN U. S.

Figures Announced By Department of Agriculture Show Decline in Value of Farm Products From Two Preceding Years.

Washington, April 22.—The Department of Agriculture estimated today that the gross wealth produced by the farmers in 1921 had a value of $12,366,000,000, or about two-thirds of the aggregate value of the farm products of 1920 and little more than one-half the aggregate for 1919. During the same period, 1919-21, production of ten crops which represent about 95 per cent of the total crop acreage, fell 8 per cent.

The total value of crops, the department said, declined from $15,423,000,000 in 1919 to $10,309,000,000 in 1920 and to $7,028,000,000 in 1921. The decline of the total value of animal products on the farm was from $8,361,000,000 in 1919 to $7,354,000,000 in 1920 and to $5,339,000,000 in 1921.

Four crops of 1921 together had a value greater than one-half of the total value of all crops for that year. Corn was valued at $1,303,000,000, or 18.5 per cent of the total; hay and forage $1,165,000,000, or 16.6 per cent; cotton lint and seed $755,000,000, or 10.7 per cent; wheat $737,000,000, or 10.5 per cent; and the four crops $3,960,000,000 or 56.3 per cent.

Of the total value of animal products in 1921 the dairy products were nearly one-half, $2,410,000,000, or 45.1 per cent; the animals raised $1,937,000,000, or 36.3 per cent; and the poultry raised and eggs produced $943,000,000, or 17.7 per cent.

TWO TEN-GALLON STILLS TAKEN AT TOLLEBORO

The Vanceburg Sun says: Deputy Sheriff S. McGinn and Joe Brammer captured two 10-gallon milk can stills near Tolleboro Monday night. They also destroyed three barrels of mash and half a gallon of liquor. Zeke Reed was brought along and at a hearing before Judge Stone he was given $100 and 30 days for having liquor and held to the grand jury in $500 bond.

PRESIDENT'S FLAG FIRST TO FLY ON OHIO RIVER

For the First Time in History President's Flag Will Fly on Inland Waters Thursday.

For the first time in the history of the Ohio River the Presidential flag will be unfurled above its waters, and a President of the United States, accompanied by thousands of guests, will make an official journey upon its gently lapping waves, when a fleet of river steamers starts out from Cincinnati Thursday morning to escort President Harding to the Grant Centenary celebration at Pt. Pleasant.

Noted persons from all parts of the nation will be among those present in the Presidential party as it steams its way upstream, and thousands of average citizens will gather at Pt. Pleasant to await the arrival of the river pilgrimage to the birthplace of General U. S. Grant on the 100th anniversary of his birth. As is befitting the illustrious record of Ulysses S. Grant, whose generalship defeated the Confederate armies and later won him two terms as President of his country, President Harding will pay homage to his memory in behalf of the nation in a centennial speech at Pt. Pleasant, which will be the keynote of the celebration.

A telegram from George B. Christian, secretary to President Harding, was received by Judge Nichols Friday advising that the Presidential party would arrive over the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at about 9 o'clock Thursday morning, and that aside from Secret Service and newspaper men it would be limited to about twelve persons. Accompanying the President and Mrs. Harding will be Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant, daughter-in-law of General Grant; United States Senators Willis and Pomerene, Congressmen Longworth and Stephens and members of the President's official family.

KIDNAPPER AND ROBBER CAUGHT AFTER THREE YEARS

Harry C. Armentrout Charged With Robbery and Kidnaping in Virginia Three Years Ago, Caught Here Friday Night

It reads like one of Sir A. Conan Doyle's detective stories but it happened in Mayville Friday night.

About four years ago a home in the county adjoining Henrico county, Virginia, was robbed during the night and $600 in money was taken. Officials traced the theft to a little farm house in Henrico county near the outskirts of Richmond and charged Harry C. Armentrout, a boarder at his farm house with the robbery. Armentrout, who had boarded at the farm house for a year and had paid promptly and thereby won the friendship of his landlord's family, declared that he was innocent of the crime and his landlord went his bail for one thousand dollars.

When the time for the trial came, about a year later, Armentrout suggested that he take his landlord's thirteen year old son with him to the neighboring county seat to attend the trial and he left with the boy. Armentrout never went near the county seat with the lad but left the country—that was three years ago and he nor the lad had not been heard of until a few weeks ago, although the Virginia officials have been searching for them.

It develops that Armentrout and the boy came to Mayville where they lived for several months as brothers and were employed in the local tobacco plants. A few months ago they went to Cincinnati and found employment in a Loveland factory. At Loveland officials finally located the pair and placed them under arrest. After holding the man for the limit of days without a warrant, officials at Loveland released Armentrout but held the boy. On last Saturday the Sheriff of Henrico county, Virginia, reached Loveland, and took charge of the boy returning him to his parents but again lost Armentrout's trail.

Watching mail received by a sweetheart of Armentrout's at Richmond, the officials intercepted a letter from Armentrout who had assumed the name of H. L. Saunders. In this letter to his sweetheart, the man told about being caught in Loveland and then stated that he was in Mayville and broke and asked that the woman send him immediately some money if only five dollars. In the letter he gave his address at 152 1/2 Bridge street, Mayville.

With this information Sheriff W. Lyndon, of Richmond, arrived in Mayville, late Friday afternoon. He got in touch with Chief of Police Mackey and the house was located as a rooming house at Third and Bridge.

Feeling certain that the Richmond, Va., sweetheart would write to Armentrout, Chief Mackey, Sheriff Lyndon and the local policemen surrounded the boarding house Friday night about the time the L. & N. train arrived, and the other officers being in hiding except Chief Mackey, who stood on the corner of Bridge and Third streets.

Shortly after the L. & N. train arrived, Colonel Wm. Daugherty, Special Delivery man at the local post-office, came from the postoffice and passing Chief Mackey at the corner, went into the boarding house. Chief Mackey followed some distance behind and saw the room from which Mr. Daugherty came after delivering the letter. The Chief then entered the room, drew his revolver and found a man standing in the center of the room with a letter and opened envelope in one hand and a five dollar bill in the other. The letter proved to be from the Richmond woman, addressed to H. L. Saunders, 152 1/2 Bridge street, Mayville. It informed Armentrout that the Richmond Sheriff knew he was in Mayville and would be after him and advised the man to go to Canada at once. Sheriff Lyndon and the patrolmen were on hand in a minute and Armentrout was placed under arrest. Sheriff Lyndon returned him to Richmond on the late C. & O. train Friday night the prisoner waiving extradition papers.

Armentrout faces the original charge of robbery and an additional charge of kidnaping the thirteen year old son of his bondsman and former landlord.

MRS. MARY M. DICKSON DEAD.

TWO GET HEAVY FINES ON LIQUOR CHARGES IN COURT

Maggie Robinson and John Morton Are Both Fined in Circuit Court Saturday on Moonshine Charges.

Maggie Robinson, colored woman, whose home in Elizabeth street, police raided several weeks ago and took a moonshine still and a quantity of liquor and mash, was given a final trial before a jury in the Mason Circuit Court Saturday afternoon and found guilty. Her punishment was fixed at a fine of $100 and a jail sentence of 30 days at hard labor.

John Morton, colored, who owned the still found in the home of the colored woman, entered a plea of guilty before Judge Newell who assessed a fine of $100 and a jail sentence of sixty days.

These are the last two moonshine cases on the local docket. All cases on moonshine charges which have been before the court this term have resulted in conviction and rather heavy fines and jail sentences have been imposed.

UNGUARDED SLAYER REPORT DISCREDITED

Reformatory Aid Says Life-Term on Visit Home Was Watched.

Frankfort, Ky., April 22. — Reports from Augusta, Ky., that Thomas Marksberry, preacher, serving a life term in the State Reformatory for murder, was permitted to go on the street unguarded while he was on a visit last week to his home in New Richmond, Ohio, were discredited today in a statement by H. M. Fuller, guard, to H. V. Bastin, superintendent of the reformatory.

The guard declared Marksberry was never out of his sight, Mr. Bastin said. The prisoner, who was convicted at Augusta, was permitted to go home because his child was ill, Mr. Bastin explained, and he went with the approval of Governor Morrow.

Circulation of petitions at Augusta against the convict's visit and reports he was permitted to walk the streets unaccompanied caused the denial here today.

At the unveiling of the memorial to Rear Admiral Peary in Arlington Cemetery in honor of his discovery of the Pole, Dr. Cook is not mentioned as among those present.

COURT BROADENS DRY MEN'S RIGHT

Frankfort, Ky., April 21. — Unless moonshiners in Kentucky dig a moat about their premises and maintain all entrances tightly closed they will be unable to invoke the ancient Anglo-Saxon doctrine that "every man's home is his castle" to protect their stills against seizure and their use in evidence against them, since the Court of Appeals today refused in the case of Lee Brent against the Commonwealth to extend the inviolability of sanctuary to include a wooded lot 400 yards from Brent's residence and within sight of it.

Brent was sentenced in Nelson county to pay a fine of $500 and serve three months in jail for moonshining. The Court of Appeals in an opinion by Judge Charles P. Moorman affirmed the sentence.

Mrs. O. H. Fleming, of Chicago, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Elzie Clift and family.

IS AMERICA TO BLAME?

The Courier-Journal, and other newspapers of the same persuasion, are never weary of pointing to the present deplorable conditions in the world as an evidence of the "fatal mistake" which this country made in rejecting the treaty of Versailles and the League of Nations covenant.

The Courier-Journal, in a recent editorial in this tone, quotes Mr. Harding, Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, on the foreign trade situation, and declares that Mr. Wilson, three years ago, "warned the country that isolation of the United States from other nations would spell economic disaster."

Mr. Harding does not suggest it, but The Courier-Journal proposes to believe that had we accepted Mr. Wilson's advice, ratified the Versailles treaty, and entered the League of Nations, Europe would have been restored, prosperity at home assured, and everything today would have gone as "merry as a marriage bell."

This, of course, is pure assumption. The Leader has repeatedly sought to draw from those who hold this view some specifications which would serve to demonstrate just how a different course of action on our part would have accomplished the salvation of the world.

How, precisely, are we to arrive at the conclusion that had the United States accepted the work of the Paris conference and entered into the European system, the war, within three years, would have been liquidated, the huge war debts lifted, credit restored, industry revived, commerce vivified, the ravages of the conflict repaired, the incalculable destruction of values compensated, the rancors and animosities of the nations extirpated, the economic equilibrium recovered, and the world's wounds healed?

That would have been a "large order" even for the American people. What would it have cost us even to attempt so colossal a task? Certainly, while no one can say just how much would have been involved, it is self-evident that this country would have been so intimately and vitally associated with European affairs, political, economic, financial, that the attempt ever to dissociate ourselves would have been hopeless.

Furthermore, it is equally certain that our wealth would have been drained away in the undertaking in sums which would have laid upon us a burden greater than that of any other nation in the world.
The cancellation of the eleven billion dollars in loans would have been an insignificant transaction by comparison.

Lloyd George, in his address at Genoa, said:

"Europe, exhausted with its fury, with the loss of blood and treasure it involved, is staggering under the colossal burdens of debt and reparation it entailed. The pulse of commerce is beating feebly, wildly; in some hands artificial activity is stimulated either by demands for repaying the ravages of war or by generations of theft by the frugal and industrious among the people; but legitimate trade, commerce and industry are everywhere disorganized and depressed."

A little further on, speaking of the absence of the United States, the British Premier said:

"However, much that has happened and is happening in Europe makes Americans cautious in interfering in our affairs. But it can set these things right at the conference, I feel sure America will not merely come in, but come in gladly."

The American people have always been ready to co-operate with the people of Europe in a common effort to repair the waste and destruction of war whenever Europe shows a disposition to agree with itself, scrap its huge standing armies, balance its bud gets, get back to work, and grapple with realities. As Lloyd George said, "What is the first need of Europe?—peace, real peace."

This the League of Nations has failed to provide, and the Versailles treaty has made it so far, impossible—Lexington Leader.

Answering criticisms of their deflation record, the Democrats deny that they started the deflation and say that if they are to be criticized at all it should be for not starting it sooner.

Philadelphia North American—European nations are perfectly willing to have Uncle Sam join their little financial game, if he'll put up his money.

OPPOSITION TO SALES-TAX MAY TAKESOME ACTION AGAINST THE SALES-TAX PROP- OSITION

Mississippi Valley Association May Take Some Action Against the Sales-Tax Proposition

St. Louis, Mo. — A hint that the Mississippi Valley Association at its annual convention to be held in Kansas City, April 25-26, will take concerted action against what is claimed to be a campaign fostered by certain Eastern security-houses to stimulate interest in favor of the sales-tax, was expressed by R. H. Faxon, secretary-treasurer of the Mississippi Valley Association, with headquarters here. Faxon claims that the sales-tax plan is detrimental to the best interests of the valley territory and that any campaign in favor of such legislation would be in disfavor among the valley interests.

Faxon stated that the alleged campaign in favor of the measure is nation-wide in scope and includes the establishment of zone headquarters from which will radiate speakers and other agents armed with data and information tending to show the feasibility of the plan. This campaign, Faxon says, has been inaugurated at considerable expense. Outlining the details of this campaign on a measure which the Mississippi Valley Association is expected to take a definite stand against, at its annual meeting, Faxon says:

"The Mississippi Valley Association is in position to warn its constituent members, particularly its commercial and trade organization units against a well-conceived plan of propaganda in favor of the sales tax. Certain New York investment interests in favor of the sales tax have formulated a very elaborate campaign which includes the establishment of zone headquarters in the various cities of the country, from which will emanate speakers and agents armed with data and information tending to stimulate interest in favor of the plan.

"According to the plan, which emanates from New York, and is founded in the decision of certain financial interests, mainly investment bankers and dealers in securities, many Valley cities will be the headquarters for outlying organization in favor of the sales tax. It is proposed to set up rather elaborate equipment for the dissemination of sales tax propaganda, which will include correspondence printed data, speakers, etc.

"The main purpose of this organization, which thus far has proceeded with the utmost secrecy, is finally to supplant the existing income tax with sales tax. That is not the original purpose, of course, for the plan is insidious. The first thing to be accomplished will be to develop a sentiment for the sales tax as a supplement to existing tax legislation. Then gradually, the plan is to have the sales tax take the place entirely of all income tax.

"Beginning with investment bankers and securities dealers in New York the purpose is obvious. These men have formed an elaborate organization which is set up in such a manner as to relieve large payers of income tax and to permit the freer disposal of securities. It may even go so far as to encourage the further spread of the tax-exempt securities evil, which deprives the government of revenue; deprives commerce and industry of money and brains essential to industrial expansion; and aids state socialism.

"Bankers generally, farm organizations, commercial interests, and economists have quite well agreed that the sales tax is not economically sound; and the opinion of those who are fa-amiliar with the plan of this latest New York propagandist movement is that the invasion of the Midwest, the establishment of central offices in the principal Valley cities, and the final motives and objectives of the movement, present a thing that is moral and economically unsound.

"Doubtless more will be heard of this movement in the near future, and in many localities. It will be strongly urged by the Mississippi Valley Association at the Kansas City meeting that caution be exercised by Valley interests regarding the campaign."

WORK THAT TELLS

Plenty of It Has Been Done Right
Here in Maysville.

To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate its work. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in Maysville. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now give confirmed testimony—declare the results have lasted. How can any Maysville suffer longer doubt the evidence?

Mrs. W. A. Schatzmann, 605 East Second street, Maysville, gave the following statement November 15, 1916:
"From the benefit I have derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills I have every reason to recommend them to anyone. Whenever my kidneys have been irregular in action or I have suffered with a weakness or lameness through the small of my back I have used a box or so of Doan's and they have always proven sufficient to cure
the complaint quickly."
On November 22, 1920, Mrs. Schatzmann said: "Doan's Kidney Pills certainly do all that is claimed for them.
I recommend them again as I did before when I publicly endorsed them in 1916. Doan's have made a lasting cure for me."

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — New York's civilian police force, consisting of 5,000 members of the volunteer reserves called upon when many of the bluecoats were summoned to the colors during the war, began this week to respond to another emergency call and to answer the summons of Commissioner Enright to fight the crime wave. Additional preparations on the part of the police against this recent attack of crime include the furnishing of wireless receiving and broadcasting apparatus to the automobile while it will be used to scour the city in search of thieves.

It was a fatal moment for Kenneth D. Harlan when he failed to be included in the filming of a picture. It was the beginning of a breakup in his home which threatens to be permanent. Mrs. Harlan charges that her husband spent two days at Atlantic City when she supposed him to be on a yacht with a motion picture company, making marine scenes for a motion picture. Then she saw the completed picture. There was no marine scene anywhere about it. Her husband rose to the occasion by explaining, despite his professional pride, that the scenes he had helped to make had been eliminated from the finished film. But her suspicious were aroused and inquiries led to the Atlantic City discovery. If one goes in for deception, it should be based upon something less tangible and visible than a picture.

New Yorkers are already getting ready for the summer migration to Newport. May tenth will be the official opening of the season there, because on that date the dowager Mrs. Vanderbilt, head of the wealthy and socially powerful clan, will take possession of the breakers, her magnificent estate far out on the cliffs. The mmmoth villa will take on extra importance this year because it will be the summer embassy of a foreign nation. For Gladys Vanderbilt, now the Countess Leslie Szechenyi, will spend the summer there with her husband, who is the Hungarian representative at Washington. Mrs. Vanderbilt has enjoyed tremendously assisting her daughter in her social and diplomatic duties, and The Breakers will undoubtedly be a place of much and elaborate entertaining this season.

Here in this city, we have a foreign stock population — people who were born in a foreign country or whose parents were — as large as the whole population of Chicago, Detroit and Boston. The Russian population is larger than the population of Warsaw and there are 100,000 more Italians here than in Naples.

Charlotte Greenwood is undoubtedly one of the true funnies women on the stage. Like Ed Wynn, it doesn't make much difference what she says or what she sings, it's funny. In "Petty Pepper," her new play with music at the Vanderbilt Theater, she has good lines and good songs, too, so we can enjoy her to the utmost. The production is Rose Stahl's "Maggie Pepper," made into a musical show.

Justice Boyls of our Children's Court is my candidate for any office in the land that he ever may wish to hold. He set a precedent the other day when he yielded to the pleading of a homeless boy, eleven years old, that his dog "Rags" be permitted to accompany him to the Mission of the Immaculate Virgin, on Long Island. When the boy was told that he would be sent to the mission, he acted worried. The judge asked him if there was anything he wished to say. "Well," whispered Tommy, "I'll be awful lonesome if I can't have 'Rags.' Maybe he'll die. Judge. There ain't nobody to look after him." The court learned from questioning Tommy that "Rags," a mongrel fox terrier, had been Tommy's close friend and companion through more than five years of adventurous childhood. Judge Boyls hesitated a moment and then ordered papers executed committing "Rags" to the mission as well as Tommy.

Robert Browning's first book "Pauline, a Fragment of a Confession," was sold here this week for $2,400. The book, which was a copy of the rare original issue, was bought by Dr. A. S. W. Rosenbach. The entire collection of first editions of nineteenth century English authors brought $24,573, with the Browning book being the highest priced volume. The first edition of Lord Byron's "Poems on Various Occasions" was sold for $1,000, the next highest price.

New York. — The human race is undoubtedly as optimistic a crowd as could inhabit any planet. Here are 400 persons who have purchased stock in a new company organized here in this center of sophistication for the manufacture of a perpetual motion machine! The joke of generations, human faith still clings to it and to anyone who tells them it has been done. The machine on exhibition is a more elaborate conception and one could see how it would impress the would-be investor. The fact that it isn't running is easily explained, too, by the fact that enough money hasn't been raised yet to supply the necessary 2,000 pounds of mercury, which has to be dumped into its inside. The stock buyers are to have their money "multiplied a thousand fold" and what better could one wish?

for that COUGH!

America is going to be well-represented on the other side of the ocean this summer. Not in years, if, indeed, ever, have there been such crowds of us planning to go abroad. More New Yorkers are studying foreign languages than ever before, say the professors, because of the trips they have planned.

"When you kick a stray mongrel into the gutter you may be kicking a fortune away," says Charles Geo. He is well qualified to judge on the matter, for "Brownie" who brings in a big weekly pay envelope from his job as a motion picture star was once a dog of the streets, and Geo took him in out of mercy and an affection for any dog that looked forlorn.

The attempt to introduce the fur anklet into New York fashions seems to have failed. In the first place, the Russian boots heat it to popularity, and the Russian boots are too high to allow for any ankle adornment above them. And in the second place, longer skirts have killed the chances of any such ornamentation, ever for those who wear low shoes. It's probably just as well. Monday fur around the sleeves and neck and flounces and the tunic is about enough.

More than $200,000,000 have been expended by American collectors for art and near art imported from Europe since the war, says Sir Joseph Pavey, art buyer of New York. Something like half this sum has gone into the ancestral coffers of "land rich and money poor" nobility forced by taxes and living expenses to part with almost priceless old masterpieces, he explained. The remainder has been spent for "cheap" specimens, valued at a mere $50,000 to $75,000 each. It is a real desire for beautiful works of art, and not a fancy to have something to boast about, according to Sir Joseph.

Whatever prohibition may have done to some lines of business, here comes one group of people who declare it a boon; the beauty doctors. "When men drink they were not so critical of their wives' appearance," explained one of the other day. "Now they are clear-eyed and clear-minded all the evening and they notice wrinkle and pallor."

One New York banker, whose affairs have been more or less in the limelight recently, has gone out of town for a month or two. "He took a vacation because he was suffering from influenza," one of his friends explained to a man who was inquiring about him. The other man laughed. "I knew that kind of influenza," he said. "It comes from cold feet due to exposure."

Another Winter Garden Show of the true old Winter Garden kind—Eddie Cantor in "Make It Snappy!" Good songs, good dancing, good-looking girls, elaborate costumes and plenty of jokes — some good and some pretty lame. The best song is "Lovable Eyes" which will undoubtedly be one of the things heard everywhere before long, and one of those which you don't mind hearing. Conchita Piquer, the Spanish songstress, is the best figure in the revue.

ONE SUSTAINS HIP FRACTURE.

Richmond. — Lillian Cox, 7, and Sarah White, 8, were struck by a milk truck driven by George Nolan while they were returning from a meeting of their mission band. The little Cox girl sustained a double fracture of her hip and her companion was bruised.

RADIO CONFERENCE PLANS

AIR CONTROL COMMISSION.

Washington, April 20. — Legislation creating a commission of ten to advise the Commerce Department in the control of radio communication will be recommended to Secretary Hoover in a report being prepared by the radio conference.

The commission would consist of five government members and five civilian members.

The report to Mr. Hoover, Dr. S. W. Stratton, Conference Chairman, said today, will embody suggestions for the allocation of wave lengths.

ASTIGMATISM

Harry "Snub" Pollard for the first time in his life was late recently on his set where everything was staged for his comedy with the working title "Grandpa's Will." Bob Evans, assistant director, found the comedian yawning in his dressing room, head in his hands, the sporting page of the newspaper open.

MANY JAIL SENTENCES

FOR ANTI-PROHIBITIONISTS.

Covington. — Sentences which ranged from fines to terms in the pen were imposed by Judge A. M. J. Cochran on ninety-nine persons. Many jail sentences were inflicted in cases where the charges were violation of the prohibition laws. Judge Cochran said he desired to be reasonable, but that the manufacture and sale of liquor required punishment to eliminate the evil. "The soft drink stand, he said, is being used for the sale of whiskey."

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S SALE

MASON CIRCUIT COURT.
Limestone Building Association, vs. Plaintiff, Sarah E. Bradley, etc., Defendants.

JUDGMENT AND ORDER OF SALE.
In obedience to a Judgment and Order of Sale in the above-styled action, I will, as Master Commissioner, on MONDAY, APRIL 24, 1922.

At 1:30 o'clock p. m., proceed at the Court House door, in Maysville, Kentucky, to sell, at public outcry, and to the highest and best bidder, the hereinafter-described real estate, in order to satisfy the Judgment Debt of the Limestone Building Association, amounting to $65.87, with interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from June 1st, 1919, until paid, and its costs in this action.

Said real estate is described as follows:
That certain lot or parcel of ground, situated in the City of Maysville, Mason County, Kentucky, and fronting 33 feet on the North side of Second street near the Western line of the City of Maysville, and extending back, North, the same width, to the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad (now C. & O.); and being the same property conveyed to Sarah E. Bradley by John T. Short and wife, by deed of date the 25th day of March, 1909.

TERMS OF SALE — Said real estate will be sold on a credit of six (6) months. The purchaser will be required to execute a Sale Bond for the purchase money, with approved personal security, payable to me as Master Commissioner, and bearing interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from the day of sale. Said Sale Bond will have the force and effect of a Replevin Bond, with a lien retained therein upon the property sold, in order to secure the payment of the purchase price thereof.

A. G. SULSER, Master Commissioner.
Stella Archdeacon. 20Apr31 A. D. COLE, Attorney.

LOU TELLEGEN WILL OPENS THEATRICAL SEASON ON MONDAY

Lou Tellegen, Famous Romantic Actor Will Open Spring Season at the Washington Opera House Monday in "Blind Youth."

An engagement that is creating more than ordinary interest in theatricals in this city is that of the eminent romantic actor, Lou Tellegen, who on Monday evening will present himself (in person) and his own company of artists, in an elaborate revival of his greatest American success, "Blind Youth" at the Washington Theatre.

"Blind Youth" is a comedy drama in three acts by Mr. Tellegen and Willard Mack, and is based on an incident which occurred some years ago when Mr. Tellegen was an artist pupil of the great Rodin, who by the way is responsible for the young actors admission to the conservatoire in Paris, which led to his engagement as leading man for Mme. Bernhardt, who brought him to this country, where he remained to become a great favorite with lovers of the drama and a good American citizen.

It tells the story of a young artist who fell in love with an adventuress and is dragged down to the lowest depths of degradation through a follow-up artist, he is finally awakened to the finer things in life, and comes to New York where he later falls in love with a beautiful American girl who reciprocates his love; his regeneration is about complete when the adventuress who learns of this, also comes to America and lays other plans, but to tell more of the plot would not be fair to prospective auditors.

STATE REGISTRATION COST MAY REACH $125,000.
Frankfort, Ky., April 21. — Kentucky's first general registration next July will cost upwards of $100,000, probably $125,000, it is estimated, most of which will be borne by the counties. The printing bill will amount to approximately $89,000 and the precinct registration officers' pay will be $23,000 or $30,000.

Mr. William Strother, of Richmond, Va., is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Caplinger, and family, of Second street.
